

Team Gaúcho 2008 September Month of Prayer
Porto Alegre, Brazil

Stronghold: Pride

“In his pride, the wicked does not seek Him, in all his thoughts there is no room for God.” —Psalms 10:4

The city of Porto Alegre is home to 4.5 million urban Gaúchos. For hundreds of years, their ancestors herded cattle across Southern Brazil, and the mythology of the rugged, individualistic cowboy pervades the hearts and minds of the people. The modern urban Gaúchos are fiercely proud of their culture, distrustful of outsiders, and slow to change and admit their need for a Savior. Please take time to pray for the Gaúchos bound by their unhealthy pride.

Pray that God would break down the unhealthy aspects of the Gaúchos' pride so that they can see their need for Christ.

Pray that God would pour out His Holy Spirit on Porto Alegre and cause many churches to be started and many people to be won to Christ.

Pray that God would guide and protect the missionaries of the IMB's Team Gaúcho as they minister to the urban Gaúchos.
